INTERVIEW

Linda one of our Emotional & Spiritual Support Team members, returned to Maranatha in 2016, Linda has come back to Maranatha because of the great changes that have happened and to be a part of this wonderful growing organisation. Recently the team went with some of the residents to see Foster & Allen at the Dubbo Regional Theatre, the residents were happy to see the show some had tears of happiness, They also went to Ma Bakers Tonic the WATS Production at the Wellington Soldiers Memorial Club, recently they attended Australia's Biggest Morning Tea which was held in the East Wing Lounge room where the residents stall raised $152.00 with pot plants they designed which contributed to the significant amount raised. There are many new and exciting events coming up such as Mathew Dickerson a new poet coming to visit once a fortnight, Sam Dorin will also visit once a fortnight to do Facial Massages. On the Monday of the Queen's birthday long weekend, Barry Dickerson and Mick Austin provided excellent entertainment for the residents, than in October the residents will be going to the Dubbo Regional Theatre again to see Dances of the Fredastair Era. The team are also in the process of organising a Maranatha Cultural Day with a date to be advised, if you or your family have anything from your country of Origin please come and see Linda. If anyone has any big coffee jars you no longer wish to use the team would love to have them to use as vases for flowers.

Enid Parkes 90th Birthday
